I'm posting a PDF in English combining all the Bhajans/Songs kids doing today. As you can see some are really hard and tough. MAHIMA Parents really need a big appreciation for helping our kids challenge themselves. To make them comfortable, I've made it clear to kids that this is not a singing competition but an opportunity to feel and experience the divinity themselves by doing it.

Will try best to project the PDF on screen today. Please familiarize beforehand.

Will soon post a Malayalam transliteration of the above PDF.
